Page 20 — Assortment and Operational Notes

Product-data conventions

- Product titles use the commercial assortment name followed by the primary size, capacity, flavour, or pack quantity.
- SKUs are permanent internal identifiers and should not be reused after product retirement.
- Dimensions are external dimensions unless specifically identified as internal or sleeping-area measurements.
- Weights and volumes refer to the packaged or labelled product where stated.
- Food products must be sold using the earliest applicable best-before date in the warehouse allocation.
- Lot, batch, and expiry details are maintained in the warehouse inventory system and are not represented by the SKU.

Discontinued products

The following records are retained for customer-service lookup, historical order matching, and replacement-product recommendations:

- IS-PET-DOG-1012 — AquaPaw Portable Dog Bottle
- IS-PET-CAT-2010 — PurrPlay Motorised Feather Wand
- IS-PET-SMALL-3006 — LittleHome Plastic Gerbil Tunnel Set
- IS-PET-BIRD-4006 — ParrotPro Mineral Block Holder
- IS-PET-AQUA-5006 — BubbleRise Aquarium Air Pump 120

Discontinued items must not be included in automated replenishment proposals. Customer-service agents should confirm remaining stock before offering a discontinued item as a replacement.

Warehouse handling notes

- DE-HAM: Temperature-sensitive pet food should be stored in a dry, ventilated area away from direct sunlight.
- NL-RTM: Carriers, crates, beds, and other bulky items require dimensional-weight checks during freight booking.
- PL-WRO: Small accessories should remain in their original retail packaging until order allocation.
- FR-LYS: Liquids, grooming tools, and first-aid accessories require leak and packaging checks during inbound inspection.
- ES-ZAZ: Aquarium electrical products must be stored separately from liquids and inspected for visible cable or housing damage.
- IT-MIL: Wooden and upholstered products require humidity-controlled storage to reduce packaging and material damage.
